DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 12-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Harsch (EP 0930110). Harsch discloses a tandem pressing line of plural presses (1,2) disposed side by side and including a bed (10), plural uprights (5,6) and a slide (7). A work conveying apparatus (16) includes a main member (26,27) and an arm portion (25) located inside the uprights of the plural presses with the arm portion (25) held on the main member to transfer work (17) between upstream and downstream presses (fig. 4). Figure 3 shows that the main member (26,27) is disposed in a space (15) between the uprights of the presses. The main member (26,27) is positioned outside a contour of the slide (7) and is fixed to the uprights (fig. 1) by housing (20). The main member is slidably held by a guiding member (21,22). The guiding member (21,22) is fixed to the uprights by housing (20). The arm member is multi-jointed (25,39,54) as shown in fig. 1a. Figure 1 shows that the main member is fixed at an intermediate portion of uprights (5,6). The arm member is extended downwardly from the main member. The work conveying apparatus is a robot.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
